COLORADO DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT
DIVISION OF LABOR
www.colorado.gov/cdle/labor

PAYDAY NOTICE

NOTE OF PAYDAYS

In accordance with 8-4-107.1, C.R.S.

Your employer shall post and keep posted conspicuously at the place of work of each covered employee a written notice containing the following information: the starting and ending time of the workday (excluding duty free meal periods), whichever calculation results in the period of time. When the nature of the business activity or other circumstances exist that makes an uninterrupted meal period impractical, the employee shall be permitted to consume an “on-duty” meal while working. When the nature of the business activity or other circumstances exist that makes an uninterrupted meal period impractical, the employee shall be permitted to consume an “on-duty” meal while working.

EMPLOYEES ARE PAID ON REGULAR PAYDAYS AS FOLLOWS:

NOTE:

In accordance with 8-4-107, C.R.S.

This notice shall be provided in a readable format, in English and Spanish, at each place of work or workday. The notice shall be conspicuously posted at the place of work of each covered employee. Any employee who is injured or sustains an occupational disease at work may be entitled to compensation (wage replacement) benefits. These compensation benefits will be based on two-thirds (2/3) of the employee’s average weekly wage, which is calculated as the weighted average of the rates for each position, as provided in the Fair Labor Standards Act.

COLORADO DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT
520 West Colfax Avenue
Denver, Colorado 80204

MARCH 1, 2018

This notice shall be provided in a readable format, in English and Spanish, at each place of work or workday. The notice shall be conspicuously posted at the place of work of each covered employee. The compensation benefits will be based on two-thirds (2/3) of the employee’s average weekly wage, which is calculated as the weighted average of the rates for each position, as provided in the Fair Labor Standards Act.

COLORADO DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT
520 West Colfax Avenue
Denver, Colorado 80204

MARCH 1, 2018

This notice shall be provided in a readable format, in English and Spanish, at each place of work or workday. The notice shall be conspicuously posted at the place of work of each covered employee. The compensation benefits will be based on two-thirds (2/3) of the employee’s average weekly wage, which is calculated as the weighted average of the rates for each position, as provided in the Fair Labor Standards Act.

IMPORTANT: The above text is a sample notice. For specific requirements, please refer to the Colorado Minimum Wage Order 35 poster or contact the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment.

If you are injured or sustain an occupational disease while at work, you may be entitled to compensation (wage replacement) benefits. These compensation benefits will be based on two-thirds (2/3) of your average weekly wage, which is calculated as the weighted average of the rates for each position, as provided in the Fair Labor Standards Act. Any employee who is injured or sustains an occupational disease at work may be entitled to compensation (wage replacement) benefits. These compensation benefits will be based on two-thirds (2/3) of the employee’s average weekly wage, which is calculated as the weighted average of the rates for each position, as provided in the Fair Labor Standards Act.

COLORADO DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT
520 West Colfax Avenue
Denver, Colorado 80204

MARCH 1, 2018

This notice shall be provided in a readable format, in English and Spanish, at each place of work or workday. The notice shall be conspicuously posted at the place of work of each covered employee. The compensation benefits will be based on two-thirds (2/3) of the employee’s average weekly wage, which is calculated as the weighted average of the rates for each position, as provided in the Fair Labor Standards Act.