In the national guard, reserves, or on active duty?

You may receive unemployment benefits if you are unemployed because you are called into the United States Army, United States Navy, United States Air Force, United States Coast Guard, or National Guard, if you perform work for pay as a member of the United States Army, United States Navy, United States Air Force, United States Coast Guard, or National Guard, and you stop performing work as a member of the United States Army, United States Navy, United States Air Force, United States Coast Guard, or National Guard. You must report your period of duty to the Unemployment Insurance Office within 60 days of separation from the United States Army, United States Navy, United States Air Force, United States Coast Guard, or National Guard.

You may continue to receive benefits for up to 26 weeks while you are on active duty and 26 weeks after you separate from active duty.

In case of injury or death caused by a work-related accident, an injured employee or a surviving family member may be entitled to workers' compensation. In addition, any fraudulent action by the director of work compensation would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment or an employee or as an applicant for employment, solely because such individual has sickle cell trait.

You are not required to pay unemployment taxes for the following practices:

- 1. Exclude or expel from its membership, or otherwise to discriminate against, any individual because such individual has sickle cell trait.
- 2. Limit, segregate, or classify its membership, or classify or fail to refer for employment, or otherwise to discriminate against, any individual because such individual has sickle cell trait.
- 3. Cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an individual in violation of the provisions herein.
- 4. Refuse to hire or employ an individual in violation of the provisions herein.
- 5. Reduce the wage rate of any employee in order to comply with Section 312 of the Revised Statutes, Title 23.
